Adding to Hone-All's expertise

Ted Barchard, 40, has been appointed by sub-contractor Hone-All Precision to the new role of Sales Manager (tel:01582 477721, e-mail: tedbarchard@hone-all.co.uk). A qualified engineer with several years' experience of the company's core competencies in deep hole drilling/boring and honing, he will promote the benefits to customers of the Dunstable company's transition to a single source supplier of high quality, fully machined components.

ISO 9001-2000 accredited Hone-All Precision offers a complete service from materials procurement through to inspection and delivery, and Mr Barchard is confident the company's continuous improvement programme will contribute to further growth and sustained investment.
